Catholic Charities Supper: September 12

Dear Fr. Court and Volunteers from Trinity Episcopal Church,

On behalf of Catholic Charities of Chicago, I would like to thank all the wonderful volunteers from Trinity Episcopal Church who served dinner at St. James Parish on September 12th for their generosity and enthusiasm. Thank you also to those who worked behind the scenes to make this event such a success! Especially to Rev. Court Williams for organizing such an enjoyable and wholesome meal.

The volunteers from Trinity Episcopal Church served 53 guests at the Catholic Charities Evening Supper Program in Highwood. Even so, there was plenty for everyone, beginning with the chicken tenders always popular with young and old, accompanied with savory lasagna with salad and Hawaiian bread, finishing with a big dish of vanilla ice cream and Brownie Bites. Yum! All were very appreciative of the meal and your friendly service. Your generosity allowed people to go home with a treat for later.

We hope this has been a rewarding experience for the Trinity Team. It's a true pleasure to work with volunteers like all of you who help make these evenings such a success. We look forward to your continued support and collaborative effort in our mission. Thank you for your support of the Catholic Charities Evening Supper Program.

Sunday Reflection / Reflejo del Domingo

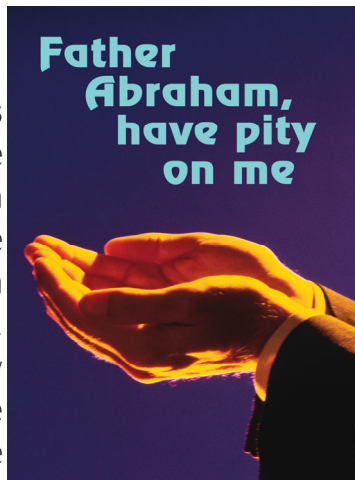

September 29, 2019 • Twenty-Sixth
Sunday in Ordinary Time

The parable of the rich man and Lazarus is a powerful and painful cautionary tale. The Gospel narrative paints a vivid picture. We can imagine the poor man, Lazarus, lying at the door of the rich man. We can see the rich man in our mind's eye, well-dressed and well-fed. The rich man has walked past Lazarus every day but has never really seen him. Even though he knows Lazarus' name, he does not matter to the rich man. Lazarus matters to God, however. The rich man did not only fail to care for Lazarus in life. He expected Lazarus to serve him in the afterlife. He is totally focused on himself. Only after he realizes the eternal consequences of his failure to care does he think of his brothers. And even then, he expects Lazarus to be his messenger! The rich man missed the point of the commandments and the witness of the prophets, in life and in death.

SEE LAZARUS IN OUR MIDST

As people of faith, Lazarus must matter to us as well. It is impossible to hear this parable without thinking of the poor and homeless in our cities, on our streets. We may not know them, but they have names. We may not understand their circumstances, but they are our brothers and sisters. Jesus' life and teaching show us that God's way is the way of love. Jesus sacrificed everything on the cross, and leads us to give beyond what we think we can or should, to pour ourselves out for the sake of others. How much like the rich man are we? We cannot solve all of the issues of poverty and homelessness in our cities, country, and world. But we are called to do something, to pay attention, to truly care, to advocate for justice and fairness, to see and to love the person on the street, as a person. As Lazarus.

Today's Readings: Am 6:1a, 4-7; Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10; 1 Tim 6:11-16; Lk 16:19-31

29 de septiembre de 2019 • Vigésimo
Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La parábola del hombre rico y Lázaro es una historia poderosa y dolorosa de advertencia. La narrativa del Evangelio dibuja una imagen vivida. Podemos imaginar al hombre pobre, Lázaro, tirado a la puerta del hombre rico. Podemos ver al rico hombre con nuestra mente, bien vestido y bien alimentado. El hombre rico pasa cerca de Lázaro todos los días, pero en realidad nunca lo ha mirado. Aunque conoce por nombre a Lázaro, no le interesa al hombre rico. Sin embargo, le importa a Dios. El hombre rico no solamente falló en cuidar en vida a Lázaro. Él esperaba que Lázaro le sirviera en la vida del más allá. Él está tan enfocado en sí mismo. Solamente después de que se da cuenta de las consecuencias eternas de su falta de atención, piensa en sus hermanos. E incluso entonces, ¡él espera que Lázaro sea su mensajero! El hombre rico pasó por alto el punto de los mandamientos y el testimonio de los profetas, en la vida y en la muerte.

VE A LÁZARO EN MEDIO DE NOSOTROS

Como personas de fe, también a nosotros debe importarnos Lázaro. Es imposible escuchar esta parábola sin pensar en los pobres y desamparados, los sin techo en nuestras ciudades y en nuestras calles. Quizá no los conozcamos, pero ellos también tienen nombres. Quizá no sepamos sus circunstancias, pero ellos son nuestros hermanos y hermanas. La vida de Jesús y enseñanzas nos muestran que el camino de Dios es el camino del amor. Jesús sacrificó todo en la cruz, y nos guía a dar más allá de lo que pensamos, podemos o debemos, a darnos por el bien de los demás. ¿Qué tan parecidos somos al hombre rico? No podemos resolver todos los problemas de la pobreza y los sin techo en nuestras ciudades, país y el mundo. Pero estamos llamados a hacer algo, a poner atención, a verdaderamente cuidar, a defender la justicia y la imparcialidad, para ver y a amar a la persona de la calle, como persona. Como Lázaro.

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith? Ever thought of joining the Catholic Church?

The RCIA "Inquiry Stage" is the first step in learning more about the Catholic Faith. It is a period of exploration and discernment, with no commitment to join the Church until after the New Year. Perhaps you have never been baptized, or grew up in another faith tradition. Maybe you are a Baptized Christian seeking full communion with the Catholic Church, or an adult in need of some of the Sacraments. All are welcome to this journey of faith!

¿Interesado en aprender más sobre la fe católica?
¿Alguna vez pensó en unirse a la Iglesia Católica?

La "Etapa de investigación" de RICA es el primer paso para aprender más sobre la fe católica. Es un período de exploración y discernimiento, sin compromiso de unirse a la Iglesia hasta después del Año Nuevo. Quizás nunca has sido bautizado o creciste en otra tradición de fe. Tal vez usted es un cristiano bautizado que busca la comunión plena con la Iglesia católica, o un adulto que necesita algunos de los sacramentos. ¡Todos son bienvenidos a este viaje de fe!

God's Word For Children

Jesus told a story about a poor man with sores all over his body.
He often would lie at the door of a rich man's estate,
but the rich man never helped ease his suffering.
When the poor man died, the angels carried him to heaven,
where he found comfort and peace.
To discover the man's name,
circle the capital letter on each angel's robe.
