Year of St. Joseph

O Saint Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires.

O Saint Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord, so that having experienced here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of fathers.

O Saint Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Hold Him close in my name and kiss His fine head from me, and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for me.
Amen.

PASTORS CORNER/ESQUINA DE LOS PASTORES

Second Week of Lent

Segunda semana de Cuaresma

The Gospel reading today gives a snap shot preview of where our Lenten journey will take, as we keep our faith in God, like Abraham in the First Reading, and our confidence that God is for us, as Paul says in the Second Reading. It is the glory of the Resurrection of the Lord, prefigured by his Transfiguration.

After foretelling his suffering and death to his disciples, Jesus let Peter, James, and John witness his Transfiguration on Mt. Tabor. It is to make sure that they know that his death leads to his Resurrection.

Reflecting on the Transfiguration on the Second Sunday of Lent today, we have a vision that we look forward to, as we complete our Lenten journey. At the same time, we also see ourselves being transfigured as Jesus was through our commitment to the Lenten virtues: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, with our sincere penance. In our contrite heart, we go on our Lenten journey with our absolute confidence that God is for us, therefore keeping our steadfast faith in Him, in order to be transformed in witnessing the glory of the Resurrection.

Reflection:

How is our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving bring us to be more like Jesus in the Transfiguration? Let us make sure that we do not engage in our Lenten practice in vain, as if it were obligatory or legalistic. Let us make sure we are renewed and transfigured as we complete our Lenten journey.

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy ofrece una vista previa de hacia dónde nos llevará nuestro viaje de Cuaresma, mientras mantenemos nuestra fe en Dios, como Abraham en la primera lectura, y nuestra confianza en que Dios está por nosotros, como dice Pablo en la segunda lectura. Es la gloria de la Resurrección del Señor, prefigurada por su Transfiguración.

Después de predecir su sufrimiento y muerte a sus discípulos, Jesús permitió que Pedro, Santiago y Juan fueran testigos de su Transfiguración en el monte. Tabor. Es para asegurarse de que sepan que su muerte conduce a su resurrección.

Reflexionando sobre la Transfiguración en el Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma hoy, tenemos una visión que esperamos, mientras completamos nuestro viaje de Cuaresma. Al mismo tiempo, también nos vemos transfigurados como Jesús a través de nuestro compromiso con las virtudes cuaresmales: oración, ayuno y limosna, con nuestra sincera penitencia. En nuestro corazón contrito, emprendemos nuestro viaje de Cuaresma con nuestra absoluta confianza en que Dios está por nosotros, por lo tanto, mantenemos nuestra fe inquebrantable en Él, para ser transformados al ser testigos de la gloria de la Resurrección.

Reflexión:

¿Cómo nuestra oración, ayuno y limosna nos lleva a ser más como Jesús en la Transfiguración? Asegurémonos de no involucrarnos en nuestra práctica de Cuaresma en vano, como si fuera obligatoria o legalista. Asegurémonos de renovarnos y transfigurarlos al completar nuestro viaje de Cuaresma.

Our Lenten Speakers

REVEREND MONSIGNOR JOHN CANARY

Reverend Monsignor John Canary

Director

Joseph and Mary Retreat House
1300 Stritch Dr, Mundelein, IL 60060

Biography:

Msgr. Canary was born and raised on the south side of Chicago, and is the third of four children. He attended Christ the King Parish grammar school and was one of eleven graduates to go to Quigley Seminary for high school. In his youth he enjoyed playing basketball, skiing and playing tennis. With the wisdom that comes with age, he now focuses his leisurely pursuits mainly on golf.

Msgr. Canary completed graduate work at the University of San Francisco where he studied the writings of St. John of the Cross. He believes St. John offers much wisdom for us today as we live our lives in faith.

Following retirement at the customary age for priests in the Archdiocese of Chicago, Msgr. Canary resides at and is the director of the Joseph and Mary Retreat House in Mundelein, Illinois. He continues to be a much-requested speaker, consultant and spiritual director, but revels in the opportunity to decline some of these invitations.
