PASTOR'S CORNER / RINCÓN DEL PASTOR

Parishioners of Saint James / Feligreses de Saint James:

If someone asks, "Why Jesus had to be baptized, if he had no sin?" how will you answer and explain? Reading the Gospel for today carefully, and you recognize that baptism is not just for sinners. It is not just to cleanse. But, baptism is also for an initiation.

In Jesus' case, baptism was to signify that he was ready to initiate his public mission to bring salvation to the world. Until his baptism, the public was not aware of Jesus' messianic and divine nature – except for Mary, Joseph, the shepherd present at the nativity, Anna and Simeon, and the Magi.

Upon his baptism, as he began his astonishing teaching and started making miracles, people began to recognize Jesus as the prophesied Messiah.

In this sense, the Baptism of the Lord is another epiphany. And, John the Baptist sure recognized God's manifestation in Jesus' baptism, before anyone else, at the sight.

Now you can answer and explain the above question better. /

Si alguien pregunta: "¿Por qué Jesús tuvo que ser bautizado, si no tuvo pecado?", ¿Cómo responderá y explicará? Al leer el Evangelio de hoy cuidadosamente, usted reconoce que el bautismo no es solo para los pecadores. No es solo para limpiar. Pero, el bautismo es también para una iniciación.

En el caso de Jesús, el bautismo significaba que estaba listo para iniciar su misión pública de llevar la salvación al mundo. Hasta su bautismo, el público no era consciente de la naturaleza mesiánica y divina de Jesús, a excepción de María, José, el pastor presente en la natividad, Anna y Simeón, y los Reyes Magos.

Luego de su bautismo, cuando comenzó su asombrosa enseñanza y comenzó a hacer milagros, la gente comenzó a reconocer a Jesús como el Mesías profetizado.

En este sentido, el Bautismo del Señor es otra epifanía. Y, Juan el Bautista seguramente reconoció la manifestación de Dios en el bautismo de Jesús, antes que nadie, a la vista.

Ahora puede responder y explicar mejor la pregunta anterior.

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.

Matthew 3:13

THIS IS MY BELOVED SON

This Sunday's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord closes the Christmas season. In the scriptures we see one more epiphany, or manifestation, of the Spirit of God in Jesus—but this time it is as an adult, rather than as a child. Jesus' baptism also serves as the inauguration of his prophetic mission and the messianic age.

Today's reading from Isaiah describes God's chosen Messiah, upon whom God's spirit rests. In the Acts of the Apostles Peter says that "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power" (Acts 10:38). Finally, in the proclamation from Matthew's Gospel Jesus' baptism in water goes almost unnoticed. The crucial moment comes when the Spirit of God comes upon Jesus and a voice from heaven echoes the words of Isaiah:

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17).

SAINT HILARY (c. 315-367)

January 13

Born in Poitiers, France, whose populace would later elect him bishop, Hilary, married and a father, was converted from paganism to Christianity through his reading of scripture. The focus of his prayerful study was the Prologue to the Gospel according to John, which portrays Jesus as the divine Logos, eternally begotten of the Father. As a result, Hilary became in the words of the biblical scholar Jerome, "the Latin Trumpet against the Arians," heretics who believed Jesus to be merely human, not divine. In defense of Christ's divinity, Hilary was not only eloquent in debate but utterly fearless in the face of relentless persecution and even exile. Thus by the witness of his own discipleship, Hilary taught that faith in Jesus as the divine Son of God has consequences. Reflecting on Jesus' challenge to his disciples, "You are the salt of the earth" (Matthew 5:13), Hilary notes that, as salt both preserves from corruption and adds savor to food, so must the faithful disciple bear a witness that, by word and example, leads others to immortality and virtuous living.

ESTE ES MI HIJO MUY AMADO

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor este domingo concluye el tiempo de Navidad. En las lecturas vemos más de una epifanía o manifestación del Espíritu de Dios en Jesús, sólo que esta vez ya no como niño, sino como adulto. El Bautismo de Jesús es también la inauguración de su misión profética y de la era mesiánica.

En la lectura de hoy Isaías describe al Mesías elegido por Dios sobre el cual ha puesto su Espíritu. En los Hechos de los Apóstoles Pedro dice que "Dios ungió con el poder del Espíritu Santo a Jesús de Nazaret" (Hechos 10:38). Finalmente, en la proclamación del Evangelio de Mateo el Bautismo de Jesús en el agua casi pasa desapercibido. El momento crucial ocurre cuando el Espíritu de Dios descende sobre Jesús y una voz del cielo viene como un eco de las palabras de Isaías: "Éste es mi Hijo muy amado, en quien tengo mis complacencias" (Mateo 3:17).

SAN HILARIO DE POITIERS (c. 315-367)

13 de enero

Nació en Poitiers (Francia) y durante su juventud abrazó el cristianismo junto con toda su familia. Gracias a su ejemplo cristiano, su misma gente lo eligió como obispo en el año 353. Como obispo destacó por su formación intelectual y su firmeza en la defensa de la fe, especialmente contra los arrianos, un grupo de cristianos que negaban la divinidad de Cristo. Fue desterrado a Frigia (Asia) en el año 356, pero esto no le impidió defender a la Iglesia de los ataques, debatiendo incluso, a los obispos arrianos. Debido a la firmeza y conocimiento de causa con que combatía a sus interlocutores, los mismos arrianos pidieron al Emperador que lo regresara a casa, a su Iglesia, donde se habían mantenido fieles a sus enseñanzas. Con los obispos que habían cedido a los arrianos fue firme para hacerles ver sus errores, pero compasivo en su trato con ellos. Su celo por la fe, así como sus escritos le valieron el título de "maestro de las Iglesias". En 1851 el Papa Pío IX lo declaró Doctor de la Iglesia.

CERTEZA

El Hijo de Dios murió; esto debe creerse, sin lugar a dudas, porque es absurdo. Y fue sepultado y resucitó; esto es cierto porque es imposible.

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus reads a passage from the prophet Isaiah to announce that he has been sent "to proclaim liberty to captives" (Lk 4:18). Unfortunately, human captivity remains a real challenge throughout the world. Human trafficking in Brazil, for example, is a serious problem that takes numerous forms: forced rural labor that amounts to modern-day slavery, trafficking to support prostitution, and forced marriages. The Church in Brazil is addressing this challenge by training leaders to publicize and denounce trafficking practices and to work with all levels of government to combat human trafficking.

In November 2018, the National Conference of Bishops of Brazil hosted a workshop in Brasília for 45 people, including bishops, priests, religious brothers and sisters, and lay people from 17 regions of the country. Participants attended presentations on the roots of human trafficking in Brazil, on sexual abuse and exploitation, and on the challenges inherent in the work to combat human trafficking. This valuable project, supported by the Collection for the Church in Latin America, trained regional leaders in Catholic social doctrine—especially teachings on human trafficking and human and environmental development—as well as Brazilian government and international anti-trafficking policies. These regional leaders will now, in turn, conduct workshops to train 400 people as agents to address the causes of human trafficking in their own regions—such as the migration of vulnerable people from Venezuela—as well as to develop plans for prevention and victim assistance.

By supporting the Collection for the Church in Latin America, you are helping Brazilians fulfill their Gospel call to protect the vulnerable, defend human life and dignity, and address the causes of human trafficking throughout the country.
